Unfinished Business:

- Izzy Johnson, winner of the worm drawing in October, reported that the worms were doing well.

New Business:

- Our next meeting is a members only pot luck lunch and auction at the home of Vivian Wixom.
Date: December 14 (with a snow date of December 15)
Time: 11:15
The hostess committee will provide desserts and beverages. Members are to bring a main dish, salad, quiche, etc., as well as 1 or 2 items for the auction and money to spend. (Minimum bid is $5.00.

We usually car pool from Home Depot.

Alison Harris will send an e-mail reminder.

- Members completed several surveys regarding their preferences for meeting times/format and input regarding speakers/programming. The consensus was to try to abbreviate one's commitment for the entire meeting time. The preferred format is:

11:30 to 12:00 Business meeting

12:00 to 1:00 Program

1:00 to 1:30 Social time with very light beverage and refreshments

Upon membership approval this new format would become effective in May 2017, after the annual meeting.

Announcements:

Carole Flaherty told us that Doreen Wakely has had a heart attack and is a patient at Maine Medical Center in Portland.

Meeting adjourned at 1:25.

The Program was presented by Jennifer Dube who is the Development Director of the Friends of the Maine State Museum and by Dr. Paula Work who is the Registrar and Curator of Zoology at the Maine State Museum. Dr. Work's presentation was "A walk through the Maine State Museum with a botanist's eye."

Respectfully submitted,

Marie Neale
