Welcome Spring in fine fashion this year with a visit to the City of Brotherly Love and the internationally renowned Philadelphia Flower Show. This year's show theme, HOLLAND: Flowering the World, will showcase the extraordinary plants, creativity and talent of this region's top horticulturists and designers along with award winning landscape and floral designers from the Netherlands.

From towering windmills, wooden shoes and delectable cheeses, to the whimsical bicycles, canals and vibrant tulip fields of the iconic Dutch landscape, the 2017 Flower Show is certain to be a must-see event. Highlights include competitive growers and horticulturists from around the world displaying their plants in bids for major honors, landscape displays, lectures, and hundreds of vendors, from all over the world selling plants, flowers, artwork, and garden-related crafts and supplies.

Our accommodations for the three nights are at the Courtyard by Marriott in downtown Philadelphia. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, guests will appreciate sophisticated décor, newly renovated, spacious rooms, modern amenities and an unbeatable city-center location. This location, a five-minute walk to the convention center, will make access to the flower show easy and convenient.

Our second full day in Philly features a guided tour of the National Constitution Center followed by a two-hour city tour via motor-coach. Our guide will entertain us with historical tales, cultural highlights and stories of the cities past and present. Several photo stops are planned as part of the tour which ends at the Italian Market just in time for lunch! The afternoon brings us to Independence National Historical Park, quite possibly America's most historic square mile. We'll visit Independence Hall, home to some of America's most important historical moments and best known as the place where the Declaration of Independence was adopted in 1776.

Our evening activities include dinner on Thursday at City Tavern, a reconstructed Colonial tavern where servers in period dress deliver old-fashioned American fare and dinner on Friday at Positano Coast featuring seafood and Italian specialties and an ambiance that will make you feel like you are on an Italian holiday.

A culinary tour of the city is on the docket for Saturday night. Flavors of Philly affords us classic Philly eats like cheese steaks, tomato pie, soft pretzels and much more as we make the rounds of places that the locals love and visitors rave about.

Registration includes: motor-coach transportation, three nights accommodations, three breakfasts, flower show tickets, museum tours, city tour, and three dinners.

Deadline to register is February 16. No refunds will be made after that date. Registration fee is based on double occupancy.
