

“Apples and Apple Trees in Maine” with John Bunker on March 11

The Topsham Garden Club welcomes back orchardist and apple historian John Bunker of Out on a Limb Apples to talk about “Apples and Apple Trees in Maine”.

John Bunker was a founder of Fedco Trees, a division of Fedco Seeds, and with the Maine Organic Farmers and Gardeners Association (MOFGA) developed an orchard in Unity, Maine to grow heritage apples. He currently owns a small, off-grid homestead farm and experimental orchard and is the author of the book, “Apples and the Art of Detection,” as well as the “Today in the Orchard” blog on www.outonalimbapples.com.

The talk will begin at 12:00 Noon on Wednesday, March 11, at the Topsham Public Library, 125 Foreside Road. It is free and open to the public. The public is welcome to stay afterwards to socialize with Topsham Garden Club members over a bring-your-own brown-bag lunch. Dessert and coffee will be provided by the club.
